A Message From The Agency

We would first like to thank you for taking the time to read our brochure. We feel the bands we represent are some of the finest in the area. Because of the increasing number of bands contacting The Agency, we acquire new bands continually, so periodically, we will send you some additional information concerning these new groups.

Agency hours are from 8:00 a.m. to 6:30 p.m. Monday through Saturday and from that time on ~~our answering service will take calls beyond these~~ hours. You can be assured your message will be answered in a matter of hours.

-CONTRACT PROVISIONS-

All business transactions will be concluded with a signed contract by both parties involved. Some of the more important provisions in the contract are:

STARTING AND BREAKS - Employer and the group agree on this in the contract and if the group is tardy or fails to comply with the breaks, their pay shall be prorated and the incident shall be reported to The Agency.

DRESS PREFERENCE - The contract calls for the employer to specify the dress of the group and the band will comply. All the groups from The Agency will appear suitably attired for the occasion.

GUESTS - No guests with the group unless the band has written permission from the employer. If the groups do bring non-participating members, they will pay the regular admission charge.

SUPERVISION - The employer shall at all times have complete supervision, direction and control of the services of the group. This includes drinking and smoking on stage while performing. Any violation of the contract rules shall be reported to The Agency.

SIGNING OF CONTRACTS - All contracts have a void date which means the employer must sign the contract and return them as the date specifies.

Booking the Finest in Musical Entertainment is the goal of The Agency. Work with your group when they arrive, discussing the breaks, type of music you want and what you expect of the band. They will work with you to the best of their ability and both of you will be pleased.
